FROM THE JPIC OFFICE

The JPIC office shares with us good news for the Antarctic as the Association of Responsible Krill harvesting companies committed this week to stop fishing in large coastal areas around the Antarctic Peninsula. http://www.pewtrusts.org/en/research-and-analysis/articles/2018/07/09/krill-fishing-companies-agree-to-notake-zones-in-the-antarctic?utm_campaign=2018-07-16+Latest&utm_medium=email&utm_source=Pew

Also, in a very compelling reflection, Sr. Dorothy Fernandes (Presentation of the Blessed Virgin Mary from India), invites us to think about not only the women victims of violence in India, but to reconnect with the Laudato Si call to see each other as brothers and sisters in this joint journey. <http://globalsistersreport.org/column/equality/raise-voices-against-violence-india->
